

Excursion to Brussels, June 2019

Topics in Agricultural and Food Policy

Organizers:

Agriculture and Food Policy (Prof. Feindt) &
Int. Agricultural Trade and Development (Prof. Grethe)

Sponsors:

Humboldt Universität zu Berlin and DAAD

Course Dates:

- 24. April 2019, 4- 6pm (Course Introduction)
- 25. May 2019, 10am – 5pm (Trip Preparation)
- 3. - 6. June 2019 (Trip to Brussels)

Module:

Topics in Agricultural and Food Policy (FM 26), 6 ECTS

All participants are expected to complete all requirements to earn 6 ECTS. Requirements include comprehensive participation, including active participation in preparatory and follow-up seminars and completion of written coursework.

Transport: By train (as a group)

Cost: Around 50 - 100 EUR (own contribution)*

*subject to public funding

Eligible Participants: Masters students of

- M.Sc. Agricultural Economics
- M.Sc. Integrated Nat. Resources Management
- M.Sc. Rural Development

Activities:

- Visit EU and German institutions in Brussels, such as DG Agri, European Parliament, European Council and the Representation of the Federal Republic of Germany.
- Conduct an independent workshop with agricultural interest groups and discuss with policy makers from different countries.
- Network with decision makers, potential employers, and course participants.

Feel the European spirit and political atmosphere of Brussels!

Please register by February 1, 2019 by sending your name, date and location of birth, nationality, study program, and enrollment number by email to: thies.rasmus.popp@hu-berlin.de