Invitation to the 8th AgrosNet-PhD-Day on 10th and 11th of March 2015 in Berlin

Prof. Dr. Uwe Schmidt
Direktor des Albrecht Daniel
Thaer-Instituts für Agrar- und
Gartenbauwissenschaften

Dear Colleagues,

Datum:
05. Dezember 2014

The next AgrosNet-PhD-Day will be held on 10th and 11th of March 2015 in Berlin. We warmly invite all colleagues and young scientists to join our event.

Postanschrift:
Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin
Unter den Linden 6
10099 Berlin

The event will start at 12 pm on the first day and at 9 am on the second day. In the "International Year of Soils 2015" the key aspect of this year's PhD Day is "Agricultural Soils". The event consists of multiple parallel sessions that will be categorised according to submissions received. Each 15-minutes presentation session will be followed by 10-minutes discussion. As an evening event there will be a casual get-together.

Sitz:
Albrecht-Thaer-Weg 3
14195 Berlin

I would kindly like to ask you to motivate your PhD students to participate and present their research in a presentation or a poster session.

For organisational reasons, abstracts need to be sent latest on January 9th, 2015 to:

In case of any further questions, you may reach us via 0331 5699-215.

Authors are responsible for the entire content of their submissions. No revision of content will take place; only editorial review will be done. Participants without presentation or poster contribution can register until February 10th, 2015.

If the number of submissions for presentation exceeds the available spots, we will kindly ask authors to apply for poster session. After the deadline expires, we will inform you on the detailed programme and further tips such as accommodation.

We look forward to welcoming you on the campus of Faculty of Life Sciences at Humboldt University of Berlin, on Invalidenstraße 42.

Yours sincerely,
